VOLUME IV. NEW SERIES.

"And in this undertaking, the Reader may see what Furniture (though it lie disperst) our Publick Records will afford for History: and how plentifully our own may be supplied and improved, if pains were taken therein: for what is hitherto made publick, hath been collected, chiefly out of old Annals, and they filled with few things but such as were very obvious, nay the Annalists themselves (for the most part residing in Monasteries) too oftened byass'd with Interest, and Affection, to Times and Persons: But on the contrary, in our publick Records lye matter of Fact, in full Truth, and therewith the Chronological part, carried on, even to days of the Month. So that an industrious Searcher may thence collect considerable matter for new History, rectifie many mistakes in our old and in both gratifie the world with unshadowed verity."—(Ashmole's History of the Garter.)

 - (c) History of Parishes and of Manors, and of Manorial Customs and Tenures, illustrated by Copies of, or reference to, original grants.
 - (d) Church Notes hitherto unpublished, such as Ecclesiastical Surveys, Extracts from Episcopal and Parish Registers, Copies of Epitaphs, and Description of Monuments and Ecclesiastical Buildings, Abstracts or Copies of Wills, &c.
 - (e) Notices of British and Roman Remains, and Roads and Buildings, and the Antiquities generally of the District.
 - (f) Autograph Letters and other Documents relating to the Civil War.

The Council shall be empowered to delegate, if they see fit, the selection of the papers to be printed, to an Editorial Committee. Of the Council, three shall be a quorum, and in case of equality of votes, their Chairman shall have a casting vote.
- IV.—The Officers of the Society shall be a Treasurer, a Secretary, and an Auditor, to be appointed by the Council. These Offices shall be honorary, but the Council shall have power to appoint an Assistant Secretary to be paid at the discretion of the Council, as the nature of his duties may warrant.
- V.—The Subscription shall be One Guinea annually, to be paid in advance, upon the first of January in each year, and such annual payment shall entitle each Subscriber to the volume issued for the year of such subscription. Any Subscriber shall be permitted to withdraw from the Society by giving notice of his intention three months before the termination of any year of Subscription.

GENERAL MEETING, OCTOBER 23RD, 1900.

THE Twenty-second Annual Meeting of the Society was held at the William Salt Library, Stafford, on the 23rd October, 1900. Present: The Right Hon. Lord Wrottesley in the Chair, the Venerable Archdeacon Lane, the Revs. W. Beresford, E. Collett, S. W. Hutchinson, F. G. Inge, F. P. Parker, and Messrs. W. S. Brough, W. H. Duignan, N. Joyce, J. W. Philips, and H. Ward, Major-General the Hon. George Wrottesley, the Honorary Secretary, and Mr. J. W. Bradley, the Assistant Secretary.

The minutes of the last meeting having been read and signed, the Chairman called upon the Honorary Secretary to read the Report of the Editorial Committee. This was read as follows:—

REPORT OF THE EDITORIAL COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1899-1900.

The Committee have to report that since the last meeting of the Society two Volumes have been issued to the Subscribers, viz., Vol. II, New Series, containing the History of Weston-under-Lyzard, and Vol. III, New Series, containing extracts from the Public Records, and a paper by the Rev. Charles Swynnerton. It was originally intended that these two Volumes should be the issue for the year 1899, but the state of the funds of the Society rendered this course inadvisable, and it was decided to make the latter Volume the issue for 1900. The result has been, that for the first time since the establishment of the Society the Annual Volume has been issued during the year for which it was due. In consequence of this, it will be noted that the expenditure during the past financial year includes the payments made on account of two Volumes in place of one. Fortunately, the state of the funds enabled this to be done, for the income of the Society has been increased this year by two or three windfalls. We have had, first, the residue of the additional voluntary subscription of 10s, from many of the members, amounting to about £38; secondly, another instalment from the sales of Crecy and Calais, amounting to £30 5s.; and lastly, a sum of £19 4s. which has been paid by the Rev. Ernest Bridgeman towards the cost of reprinting the first part of the History of Weston, which appeared in Volume XIV, and the portion cancelled of the History which appeared in Vol. II, New Series. The Committee wish to express their acknowledgment of the liberality shown by Mr. Bridgeman upon this occasion, for these alterations and reprints were made in the interests of accuracy, and for the benefit of the Society.

Every outstanding debt or liability of the Society has been defrayed up to the present date, excepting the honorarium which is paid annually to the Assistant Secretary, and the balance at the Bank will enable this to be done at any time. In addition to which, a sum of £12 has been paid out of the funds of the current year on account of future volumes. The financial condition of the Society appears therefore to be sound, so long as the annual Volume does not exceed 250 pages in bulk or thereabouts.

Vol. IV, New Series, is partly printed, and should be issued to the Subscribers about the middle of next year. Its contents will consist of a continuation of the Fines of the reign of James I, a selection of Ancient Staffordshire Charters, and extracts from the Plea Rolls of the reigns of Henry VI. and Edward IV.

October 20th, 1900.

¹ Since this was proposed it has been found possible to make up a full Volume of Records, and the Charters have therefore been postponed for another issue.

Lord Wrottesley moved that the Report be approved and printed with the proceedings of the meeting, which was carried unanimously.

Mr. Parker suggested that if the comparative thinness of the last volume and succeeding volumes should be made a subject of complaint by the Subscribers, the extra 10s. 6d. per annum should be made permanent. He for one would gladly pay it. Mr. Beresford, on the other hand, considered the volume was large enough considering its quality, and the large amount of original matter which it contained. He had found it most interesting, and the historical information about Staffordshire life in the fifteenth century was very valuable.

The Report of the Assistant Secretary was then read, but as it entered into much detail and had not been previously seen by the Council, it was ordered to be handed over to the Honorary Secretary for his consideration, and for such use as might be deemed advisable: the material portions of it were as follows:—

REPORT OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

- The first thing I have to notice with regard to the events of the past year is that the Society's losses by death or withdrawal—though not numerous—are important.
- Mr. John Robinson, of Leek, it appears, joined the Society under a misapprehension, and has withdrawn promptly.
- Mr. Hackwood has also dropped out.
- Mr. R. Fenton, about whose position there has been for some time considerable anxiety, has at length paid (nearly) up and now definitely states his intention to withdraw his membership.
- By death the Society has lost heavily in the persons of Lord Harrowby, Mr. F. C. Perry, the Rev. C. T. Royds. These were, indeed, Members whose cheerful and active sympathy and ready service were invaluable. Dr. Eagleton, whose death also robs the Society of a great scholar, was less known by the Members and seldom able to visit Stafford.

- The Society has also lost by death Mr. Ratcliff and Mr. George T. Clark, the well-known antiquary and historian of Glamorgan.
- With regard to vacancies thus created, it is presumable that Lord Harrowby's name will be continued by the present Earl; and Miss Perry has expressed a wish to take up her late brother's Membership. Mr. Royds has no successor, nor has Dr. Eagleton. No notice of Mr. Clark's or Mr. Ratcliff's death had been received until after application for unwonted arrears. The widow of Dr. Eagleton has very considerately paid the extra 10s. 6d. promised by him. I have not yet heard from the Executors of Mr. Royds about the 10s. 6d. promised by him.
- Three new Members have joined the Society, one a corporate body—the Hon. Society of Lincoln's Inn—
- 2. The Newberry Library, Chicago.
- 3. Mr. B. M. Pershouse Bayley.
- It is extremely desirable that before the next list of Members is printed the Society should individually take up the endeavour to add to the numbers. It is a trite but valuable arithmetical observation that if each would add one the total would be doubled. And it does not seem utterly unreasonable that one enthusiast should create or attach another, to seize the real advantages offered by membership of this Society.
- The Statement of Accounts is the next subject for remark. It shows an unusual expenditure arising from the issue of two Volumes instead of one during the financial year.
- Against this the Society has received payment for 193 volumes, value £202 13s., as compared with £105 for 100 volumes last year.
- The special 10s. 6d. this year has produced £38 5s. 6d., as compared with £36 14s. 6d. last year. This makes a total of exactly £75, leaving £12 12s. still due.
- The sales last year only produced £3 2s. 4d., this year £17 11s. 4d., which but for an extraordinary reduction in one case should have brought another £5 5s. The sales of the Crecy Volume last year were reported by Messrs. Harrison to amount to £33 1s. 9d.
- This year General Wrottesley reports £49 9s. 3d. received by him. Together, then, there is an increase of £30 16s. 6d., while the total amount paid towards the extra outlay is £82 11s.

Mr. Joyce proposed and Mr. Beresford seconded votes of thanks to the Chairman, Lord Wrottesley, for presiding, and to Major-General Wrottesley for his generous and gratuitous services to the Society. These were carried unanimously, and the meeting separated.

VI, at which term he had sued them for waste and destruction in a messuage and 40 acres of land and 3 acres of meadow in Compton, and the Sheriff had been ordered to appraise the damage by a jury of the vicinage, and John Coton, the Sheriff, had come to Compton on the Thursday after Michaelmas, 34 H. VI, by virtue of this writ, and the jury had found that the said Roger and Margaret had caused damage by cutting down and selling 8 oak trees, each worth 20d., and 4 ash trees, each worth 20d., but had done no further damage, on which occasion, the place being unknown to the Sheriff, he had asked the said William to show him the places where the waste had occurred, and he had entered only for that purpose. Derby. The Sheriff of co. Derby was therefore ordered to summon a jury for the Morrow of St. John the Baptist. A further postscript shews that the cause was afterwards moved by writ of nisi prius to be heard in the county, when a jury, in 36 H. ¹ The rent or service not having been paid or performed for two years.

And Thomas Lyttylton then asked for license "inde interloquendi," which was granted to him, and the suit was adjourned to Easter term, when Thomas Lyttylton appeared in person and Thomas Jerveys made default. Staff. Thomas Littelton sued in person Humfrey Stafford and Katrine, his wife, for the manor of Chebbesey, as his right and inheritance by the King's writ of right, to be held of the King in capite, and stated he was seised of the manor in demesne as of fee in the time of the present King, and offered to prove his right, as the Court should think fit.

Humfrey and Katrine defended their right, and called to warranty Henry Jenettys, who was present in Court and warranted the manors to them.

Thomas Littelton then sued the said Henry as tenant under the warranty, and stated that he was seised (as before).

And the said Henry defended his right, and put himself on the Great Assize of the King, and Thomas Littelton then asked for an adjournment, which was granted. And Thomas afterwards appeared in Court at this term, and the said Henry, being solemnly called, made no appearance. It was, therefore, considered that Thomas should recover the manor against the said Humfrey and Katrine, to be held by him and his heirs quit of the said Humfrey and Katrine, and that Humfrey and Katrine should be compensated by the said Henry. m. 536.

Staff. John Shawe, who sued for the King as well as for himself, sued John Gresley, late of London, knight, in a plea that whereas in the Statute passed in Parliament in the first year of Henry the Fourth, late "de facto" but not "de jure" King of England, it had been ordained that no Archbishop, Bishop, Abbot, Prior, nor any other ecclesiastical nor temporal person of whatever condition he might be within the Kingdom of England should give liveries of cloth, except to his own household and officials and those who were of his council and learned in the law, under a penalty and fine at the King's discretion, and in the Parliament of the same King in the seventh year of his reign, it had been ordained that both the said Statute and the Statute respecting the livery of hoods ("de liberata capitiorum"), of the time of King Richard II, should be firmly maintained and put into execution, and with the addition that if any knight or other person of lesser status should give any such livery of cloth or hoods against the Statute he should incur a penalty of 100s. for every livery of cloth so made, and that every one who should receive such livery should incur a penalty of 40s., and that the person who should prosecute in such cases should receive the half of the said penalties; the said John Gresley, taking no heed of the said Statutes, had given liveries of cloth to divers persons who were not of his household, nor officials employed by him or persons of his council learned in the law, viz., at Lichefield, Colton, Ruggeley, Heywode, and Stafford, in contempt of the King and against the Statute. John Gresley did not appear, and the Sheriff returned that he had been attached by Richard Flore and Henry Colte. His sureties were therefore in misericordia, and the Sheriff was ordered to distrain and produce the said John on the Quindene of Easter Day. A postscript states that on that day the Sheriff made no return to the writ, and he was ordered to distrain and produce the defendant on the Quindene of Holy Trinity. m. 84, dorso.

John did not appear, and the Sheriff was ordered to arrest and produce him on the above date. m. 85, dorso.

Staff. William Muchale sued John Danstone, of London, sherman, and Elena, his wife, for breaking into his close and houses at Wulvernehampton and taking his goods and chattels to the value of £20. Molet, of Stafford, servant, for breaking into his close and houses at Stafford and taking his goods and chattels to the value of 100s. Staff. William de Birmyngham, knight, and William Thorneton, clerk, were summoned at the suit of the King, in a plea that they should permit him to present a fit person to the church of Enfeld (Enville), and the King's attorney stated that one William Birmyngeham, knight, the father of the said William, was seised of the advowson of the church, and had presented to it one Humphrey Smythe, his clerk, who had been instituted temp. H. VI, and the advowson had descended to the said William after his death, and that one Thomas Walsh, late Sheriff of co. Warwick, on the 1st October, 37 H. VI, had sued the said William in the King's Chancery for a debt of £20, and the said William, not appearing to repeated summonses, had been put into exigend and eventually outlawed, and whilst the said William was still an outlaw the church had become vacant, so that the right of presentation had fallen to the King. William de Birmyngham appeared and admitted the right of the King, but the writ to the Bishop was respited pending the suit of the King against William Thorneton. The latter asked for an adjournment, which was granted. A postscript states that at Trinity term William Thorneton appeared and stated that Thomas Erdyngton and William Harecourt, knights, were seised of the advowson, and whilst so seised had presented him to the church, and he had been instituted before the date of the King's writ of "quare impedit," viz., on the 10th March, 5 E. IV, and that the King by his Letters Patent dated 15th May, 6 E. IV, had confirmed him in the possession of the Rectory of the church of Enfeld, and released all his claim to it. The King's attorney claimed judgement in his favor on the ground that he was not called upon to answer the plea of William Thorneton, and the suit was adjourned for the decision of the Justices. m. 282.

Wilts. Richard Darelle, late of Litelcote, armiger, was summoned at the suit of Alexander Darelle, executor of the will of Elizabeth Darelle, in a plea that he should pay to him a sum of 45 marks, which he unjustly withheld, and Alexander stated that on the 1st August, 3 E. IV, the said Richard had placed Margaret, the Countess of Stafford, to board ("ad mensam") with the said Elizabeth during her lifetime, paying to her for each week for which the Countess was at board with her the sum of 13s. 4d. for her diets ("pro dietis suis"), such rate to continue during the whole time of the presence of the said Countess ("essencie ipsius Comitesse") at board with Elizabeth, and notwithstanding the said Countess had remained at board with her from the said 1st August for the 45 weeks following, the said Richard had not paid Elizabeth during her life for the said arrears, and had refused to pay her executor, notwithstanding frequent requisitions made upon him, and he produced the testamentary letters of the said Elizabeth, which satisfied the Court that he was her executor. Richard Darelle appeared by attorney, and denied that he had detained the money, as stated by Alexander, and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Quindene of Easter Day. A postscript shews that the Sheriff had made no return to the writ up to Michaelmas term, 6 E. IV. m. 341, dorso.2

neque per legem terre tenetur respondere, per quod petit judicium."

² The peerages are silent respecting the identity of this Margeret, Counters of Stafford, but she was probably the widow of Humfrey, Earl of Stafford, who was killed at St. Albans in 1455. She had apparently married Richard Darell and was an imbecile.

Richard Darell, who was afterwards knighted, subsequently married Jane, the widow of Sir Walter Wrottesley, who died in 1472. (Deeds at Wrottesley.)

And John now appeared in person, but the Sheriff returned that the said Thomas was detained in prison at Stafford in such an infirm state that he could not be moved without fear of his life. The Sheriff was therefore ordered to produce him on the Quindene of Easter Day. m. 325.

Staff. Robert Stone, of Uttoxather, yoman, and Thomas Burdon, late of Uttoxather, husbondman, were attached at the suit of John Delves, armiger, for breaking vi et armis into the close of the said John at Crakemersshe on the Feast of St. Luke, 6 E. IV, and throwing down his ditch and hedge, and depasturing cattle on his grass, for which he claimed £40 as damages.

The defendants appeared by attorney and denied having used any force or caused any breach of the King's peace, and appealed on this issue to a jury, and as regarded the rest of the trespass they stated that the place where it was alleged to have taken place was a great field ("campus") containing 500 acres and parcel of the manor of Crakemersshe and immediately adjacent to the manor and vill of Uttoxather, and the said field from time out of memory had been without any fence between it and the fields of the vill and manor of Uttoxather. And John Delves was seised in fee and demesne of the manor of Crakemersshe, and each of the defendants was seised in demesne as of fee of a messuage and 40 acres of land in Uttoxather, and they and all their antecessors and all the other tenants and inhabitants of the vill and manor of Uttoxather had for all time made use of the said field of Uttoxather adjacent to the field of the said John for two years running after the corn had been reaped until the land was resown, and for every third year when the fields laid fallow, to place their cattle in them for pasture, and if the cattle left the field for the field of the said John, it was not lawful for him or any other lord of Crakemersshe to drive them out or to impound them, and in the same way all the tenants and inhabitants of the manor of Crakemersshe had similar rights in the fields of Uttoxather, and as the said John had erected ditches and hedges so that the cattle of the said Robert and Thomas could not leave the fields of Uttoxather, after the wheat had been gathered, they had thrown down the fences for a space of 60 feet, so that their cattle might enter the fields of Crakemersshe as was lawful. And they prayed judgement whether John Delves could maintain his action against them.

And John Delves pleaded he was not bound to answer the allegation of the defendants, and as they admitted the trespass he prayed for judgement and damages for the injury.

The defendants replied they had alleged enough material to bar the action against them and asked that it might be dismissed, and as the Justices required time to consider the matter the case was adjourned to the Quindene of Easter Day. A postscript states that on that day the Justices gave judgement that the plea of the defendants was not sufficient in law to bar the action of John Delves, and the Sheriff was ordered to make an Inquisition into the damage sustained by the said John. A further postscript states that at an Inquisition taken at Stafford on the Thursday before Michaelmas, 8 E. IV, a jury assessed the damages of John Delves at £10 and his costs at 40s. m. 335.

William Repyngton, armiger, recovered from John Harecourt, armiger, and Margaret, his wife, one of the kinswomen and heirs of John Broun, late of Lichefeld, and Richard Ruggeley, the other kinsman and heir of the said John Broun, a messuage, 500 acres of land, 100 acres of meadow, 200 acres of pasture, and a fishery in the water of Onkere, in Great Amynton, Little Amynton, as his right and inheritance by a writ of right. m. 128, dorso.

Staff. In the suit of the Abbot of Croxden against William Mower for depasturing cattle on the Abbot's grass by force, the defendant appeared and denied the trespass, and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of Holy Trinity. A postscript states that the process was continued till Easter term of 9 E. IV, when it was moved by writ of nisi prius to be heard in the county. The Justices of Assize afterwards returned that the parties had appeared before them, and of the jury enpanelled some had come and some had not appeared, and it was shewn that many of the jury did not belong to the hundred in which the trespass had taken place: the process was then continued till Easter, 10 E. IV, when it was moved again by writ of nisi prius to be heard at Stafford. And a jury being sworn stated that William was guilty of breaking into the Abbot's close, and they assessed the damage at 6s. and the Abbot's costs at 20s., and as regarded the depasturing of cattle on the Abbot's grass, they stated that William was not guilty. It was therefore considered that the Abbot should recover his damages, and the Court on the requisition of the Abbot increased his costs to 100s. m. 226.

Staff. Thomas Canke and Joan, his wife, formerly wife of John Cokenage, late of Dorlaston, sued John Broun for a messuage, 22 acres of land, and 12 acres of meadow in Dorlaston.

The plaintiffs admitted that Henry Howson had been seised of the tenements, but they stated that whilst so seised he had enfeoffed John Cokenage and the said Joan, then his wife, in the tenements, and John Cokenage and Joan had been seised of them, and John Cokenage had died, and after his death the said Joan had been seised in demesne as of fee by the "jus accrescendi," and whilst so seised had married the said Thomas Canke, and they had been seised of the tenements in right of Joan until they had been dispossessed by the said John Broun.

John Broun replied that the said Henry had died seised of the tenements as he had alleged, and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of St. Michael. m. 320.

Staff. John Stanley, knight, late armiger, sued John Vampage, the elder, who was in the custody of the Marshall, for a sum of 1,000 marks owing to him under a bond executed at Penkrich by the said John Vampage on the 10th April in the 33rd year of H. VI, late "de facto et non de jure" King of England.

And John Vampage appeared in Court, and asked that the bond might be read together with its endorsement, by which it appeared that the condition of the bond was, that the said John Vampage and all the others enfeoffed in the lands, and tenements to his use, in which John Stanley and Elizabeth, his wife, claimed dower as of the right of Elizabeth of the dotation of John Vampage, her former husband, in cos. Gloucester and Worcester, should stand to the arbitrament and judgement of Thomas Lyttelton, sergeant-at-law, and of William Cumberford, respecting the said dower, and the defendant stated that John Stanley could not maintain his action, because the said arbitrators, on the 30th June, 33 H. VI, had delivered their judgement.

The proceedings extend over several membranes, but no judgement was given in the case; they shew that John Vampage, the defendant, had a son, John, who was jointly enfeoffed with him in some of the tenements from which dower was claimed. m. 98.

Stafford, knight, and others had feloniously received and abetted the said John, knowing he had committed the felony, and which Indictment the King for certain reasons had commanded to be brought up and terminated in this Court.

And Isabella Meverell now surrendered, and pleaded she was not guilty, and put herself on the country, and as John Stathom, the principal concerned in the felony, had been outlawed in 35 H. VI, a jury was to be summoned,1 and in the meantime Isabella was admitted to bail on the security of Robert Derby, yoman, for the death of John Moycok, his brother.

1 There seems some error in this date. There could hardly have been five generations between 1422 and 1468.

Other writs were issued by the duke against twelve of the principal gentry of Derbyshire for the same offence, and these penul proceedings give a clue to the unpopularity of the Duke.

And John Moycok stated that when his brother was at Haustongrange, co. Derby, on the Saturday before the Feast of St. John the Baptist, 6 E. IV, about the sixth hour the said John de la Pole, the elder, and Henry Vygurs, who were now present in Court, together with John Harryson and Mathew Blande, had feloniously assaulted the said John Moycok, and John de la Pole, the elder, had struck him on the left side of the head, causing a mortal wound, of which he immediately died, and the said Henry Vygurs with a certain sharp weapon ("armicudio") had struck the same John Moycok on the breast, causing another mortal wound, and John Harryson with a bow and arrow had shot John Moycok in the back, causing a mortal wound, and the said Mathew Blande had struck him with a staff called a clubbudstaff on the right side of the head, causing a mortal wound, and that the other defendants on the same Saturday had feloniously received and maintained them after the felony.

And John de la Pole, the elder, and Henry Vygurs appeared and denied the felony, and put themselves on the country, and the Sheriff was ordered to summon a jury for the Quindene of St. Hillary, and in the meantime the said John and Henry were admitted to bail. A postscript shews that the appeal was afterwards adjourned to Easter, 9 E. IV, when the plaintiff failed to appear to prosecute it, and the appeal was dismissed. The two other defendants had been outlawed. m. 22.

Salop, had falsely fabricated certain instruments concerning a messuage of Humfrey Blountes with a view of disturbing him in the possession of it; and which Indictment the King for certain reasons had commanded to be brought up and terminated in this Court. And the said Laurence and Ralph now appeared and pleaded that the Indictment was not sufficient in law, as it made no mention that Humfrey Blount was seised in demesne as of fee of the messuage in Drayton. The Court were of opinion that the Indictment was insufficient, and the suit was dismissed. m. 1 Rex.

m. 131, dorso.

Staff. William Mitton, late of Weston under Lyseard, armiger, was summoned by the same Henry in a plea that he had been receiver of the money of the said Henry from the Feast of St. Michael, 30 H. VI, until the following Michaelmas, during which time the said William had received by the hands of Nicholas Flaxhale, the Bailiff of the manor of Walshale, a sum of 6 marks of the fee farm of the vill of Walshale for which he ought to have accounted to the said Henry. William appeared by attorney and asked for an adjournment, and the process was the same as in the two previous suits. m. 131, dorso.

Warw. William Whytyngton sued John Nevyle, armiger, to acquit him of the service which Richard, Earl of Warwick, exacted from him for the freehold which John held in Upton, near Haselore, and in which John was mesne tenant between them and ought to acquit him, and William stated that he held of the said John the manor of Upton by homage and fealty and a scutage of 10d. for the King's scutage of 10s. and more or less, as it should fall due ("ad plus plus et ad minus minus cum acciderit"), and for a rent of 2s. annually, and of which services the said John was seised by the hands of the said William, and the Earl demanded from the said William 100s. for the relief of the said John Nevyle after the death of his father, Ralph Nevyle, whose heir he was, and had levied a distress upon him for it by taking the cattle of his plough so that he could no longer cultivate his land, and for which he claimed 100 marks as damages.

John stated that William could not maintain his action because at the date of the writ William was not tenant of the manor nor ever afterwards, as of a freehold. And further that the manor was held of him by other services than those alleged by William, and the manor at the date of the distress was no part of the fee and demesne ("extra feedum et dominium") of the said Earl, and he asked for judgement in his favor on these grounds.

William replied that at the date of the distress the manor was within the fee and demesne of the Earl and appealed, to a jury which was to be summoned for the Quindene of St. Hillary. A postscript shews no jury had been summoned up to Michaelmas, 10 E. IV. m. 149.

The Sheriff was therefore ordered to summon the said Thomas, notwithstanding the Liberty, to be in Court on the Quindene of St. Hillary to answer the suit of the said Richard and Elizabeth. H. VI. Thomas Meverell denied that he was tenant of the manor, and took exception to the writ on this issue.

Walter Blount stated that Thomas Meverell was tenant of the manor, and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Quindene of Easter. And as Walter stated that William Blount, armiger, the Sheriff of the county, was his son, the jury was to be empanelled by the Coroners of ¹ The defendants in all the above suits brought by Henry Stafford had been Sheriffs of the county, and had evidently received the fee farm rent of Walshale on behalf of the Crown. Similar suits were brought by Henry Stafford against John Delves, of Uttovather, and Humphrey Pestale, of Knyghtley. The plaintiff was probably Henry, afterwards the second Duke of Buckingham, and the fee farm nent of Walshall must have been paid to the Crown during his minority. In former days the heir of a deceased earl would not be described as an earl before his investiture by the King.

Staff. John Stanley, knight, and Elizabeth, his wife, sued James Annesley, of Uxbrigge, co. Ralph stated that his brother John Sacheverell, whose heir he is, was formerly seised of the tenements in demesne as of fee and died without issue of his body, and they had descended to him as brother and heir of John, and he had been seised of them until unjustly disseised by the defendant.

Henry replied that Richard Vernon had died seised of the tenements in demesne as of fee as he had alleged, and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Quindene of St. Michael. A postscript states that on that date the suit was made a remanet, owing to the restoration to the throne of Henry VI, and afterwards, on the 16th October, 49 H. Wygorn., which had descended to the said Margery and Elizabeth as her heirs, and Elizabeth married the said William, and Margery married one Thomas Staresmore, and the said William and Elizabeth and Thomas and Margery had entered into the said manor and the tenements at Dudley, and being seised of them, had made a partition at Carleton in co. Bedford, by which partition the said manor and tenements had been allocated as the purparty of Elizabeth, and the tenements at Dudley had been allocated as purparty of the said Margery.

Margery in reply denied that any such partition had been made, and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of St. Michael.

¹ Edmund Grey, fourth Baron Grey of Ruthyn, had been created Earl of Kent by Edward IV in 1465, and had apparently incurred the enmity of the Warwick faction, for the first three defendants named in this case were members of the Council of the Kingmaker. At Coughton Court there is a warrant addressed to Thomas Throckmorton by the Earl of Warwick, directing him to pay certain sums of money for the expenses of Walter Wrottesley, Edward Grey, and Walter Skall, Knights of the Earl's Council, who had been to Cardiff on the Earl's business, dated 22nd March, 4 E. the present King's reign, and offered to prove his right, etc.1

And Alianora appeared by attorney, and stated that a certain Walter Wrottesley, knight, Alexander Gray, chaplain, and Thomas Hall were seised of the manor in demesne as of fee, and long before the writ of the said Edmund was issued they had demised it to her for her life, with remainder to her daughter Joyce and heirs male of her body, and failing such to Thomas Stafford, armiger, the son of the said Alianora, and heirs of his body, and failing such to Humfrey Stafford, armiger, brother of Thomas, and heirs of his body, and failing such to the right heirs of the said Alianora for ever, and as she only held the manor for her life, she could not answer without the said Joyce, Thomas, and Humfrey, and she asked that they might be summoned and made parties to the suit, which was conceded. 1 The "etcetera" in a writ of right stands for wager of battle, or any other way the Court might consider fit.

There appears to be no sequel to this suit. The onslaught on the Earl of Kent was clearly of a political nature, and had taken place during the troubles of the kingdom consequent on the deposition of Edward IV in 1470. On the (th August, 1471, i.e., about a month before the writin this action was issued, hir Walter Wrott sley and Sir Geoffrey Gate had obtained a full pardon for all offences committed up to that date, and this pardon would have covered the trespass complained of.

knight, respecting the manor of Darleston, near Stone, and tenements in Anesley, near Burton on Trent, and Aston, near Stone, were brought up by a writ of error to be heard coram Rege. The record was as follows:—

Staff. An assize, etc., if Thomas, the Prior of Stone, and Thomas Fyton, knight, had unjustly disseised Richard Whalley of his freehold in Darleston, near Stone, in Anesley, near Burton-on-Trent, and in Aston, near Stone, viz., of the manor of Darleston and a messuage, 60 acres of land, and 6 acres of pasture.

And the Prior and the said Thomas Fyton being solemnly summoned did not appear, and the Sheriff stated that the Prior had been attached by an ox worth 3s., and Thomas Fyton by three pieces of timber worth 20d. The said ox and three pieces of timber were therefore forfeited to the King, and the assize was taken against them by their default.

The recognitors on oath stated that Richard Whalley had been seised of the said manor as of his freehold until he had been disseised vi et armis by the said Thomas Fyton, and they assessed his damages at £40, and they stated that the Prior had taken no part in the above disseism, and they found that the said Richard Whalley had been seised as of his freehold of the said messuage, land, and pasture in Aston until the Prior had unjustly disseised him, and they assessed his damages at £6, and they stated that Thomas Fyton took no part in this disseism, and they assessed the costs of Richard at £20. The said Richard was therefore to recover £6 from the Prior and triple damages from Thomas Fyton according to the Statute, viz., £120 and £60 as damages, the disseism having been made vi et armis. m. 444.

It was therefore considered that Margaret should recover the dower claimed, and the defendants were in misericordia, upon which Margaret asked for a writ of fieri facias to give her seisin, which was granted returnable on the Octaves of St. John the Baptist, A postscript states that on that date the Sheriff made no return to the writ, and he was ordered to make it on the Morrow of All Souls, on which day Margaret appeared by her attorney and the Sheriff returned that he had given Margaret seisin of 12 messuages, a toft, a croft, 340 acres of land, 60 acres of meadow, 183 acres of pasture in Brunnesford, Shareshull, Coven, Little Saredon, and Great Saredon, which Richard Smyth, Richard Kent, Richard Short, Henry Cartwryght, Richard (. . .), William Sukkyn, John Robert, John Walker, Roger Pury, Roger Alle, Thomas Berwyk, William Nybkyn, William Grene, (. . .) Staff. In the suit of John Harcourt, armiger, and Thomas Swynerton, clerk, against Roger More, of Ruggeley, for breaking into their closes and depasturing cattle on their grass at Penkryche and Chelyngton, Roger appeared by attorney and pleaded that the closes in question were his freehold.

The plaintiffs replied that as regarded one close which was in Penkryche, long before the trespass took place one John More was seised of a messuage, 2 acres of meadow, and 6 acres of pasture, parcel of the land in dispute, and after his death the tenement descended to one Thomas More as his son and heir, and Thomas More enfeoffed them in it, together with one Hugh Erdeswyke, who was now dead, and they were in seisin of it until disseised by the said Roger, and they had afterwards re-entered and were seised of the tenements at the date of the alleged trespass, and as regarded the trespass in Chelyngton, the plaintiffs stated that a certain John Welles, clerk, Roger Godeman, and Roger Lyot were seised of a messuage, 3 acres of meadow, 17 acres of land, and 30 acres of pasture in Chelyngton, the residue of the closes where the trespass took place, and had enfeoffed the said Thomas More, and Thomas More, being so seised, had enfeoffed the plaintiffs and the said Hugh, who was now dead, and they had been seised by virtue of this feoffment until the defendant had disseised them, and they had re-entered and were in possession at the date of the trespass.

Roger More replied that the said John Welles, Roger Godeman, and Roger Lyot were seised of the entire tenements, both in Penkeryche and Chelyngton, and had granted them to one Roger More, the younger son of the said John More, and the heirs of his body, by which feoffment the said Roger More had been seised in demesne as of fee tail, and had issue Roger More, the defendant, and he had entered and was seised of the tenements in demesne as of fee tail, and he had depastured his cattle on the land as was lawful. The plaintiffs appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the

Octaves of Holy Trinity. m. 111,

Middlesex. William Brereton, of Brereton, co. Chester, knight, was summoned at the suit of Robert Knolles, armiger, and Elizabeth, his wife, to render to them a sum of £40, for which they held his bond, dated from Westminster 11th August, 5 E. IV.

William appeared in person and pleaded that the plaintiffs could not maintain the action, because on the said 11th August after the bond had been made, by an indented deed made between them, the said Robert Knolles, armiger, and Elizabeth, his wife, formerly wife of Hugh Venables, knight, the cousin and heir of Hugh Venables, of Kynderton, armiger, on the one part, and him, the said William Brereton, knight, on the other part, and which he produced in court, the said Robert and Elizabeth conveyed and demised to farm to the said William their manor of Wytton and le Crosse, in co. Chester, and all messuages, lands, burgages, mills, rents, and services in Wytton and le Crosse, together with housbote and haybote and sufficient timber for the repair and maintenance of the manor house and messuages and tenements from the woods of Mersshton and Lynwode, to be held by the said William, his heirs, and assigns from the following Feast of St. Martin the Bishop in winter after the date of the Indenture, during the lifetime of the said Robert, and rendering annually during that time to the said Robert and Elizabeth, at the Bull, in Chepe, in London, into the hands of Thomas Hiltoft, citizen and vynter, of London, or to Stephen Hyngeham, citizen and gurdeler, of London, or the tenants of either of them, to the use of the said Robert, within the parish of All Saints, in Hony lane, in Chepe, the said £30 13s. 8d. at two terms of the year, viz., at the Feast of St. Martin the Bishop in winter, or within 8 weeks following, £15 6s. 8d., and at the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist following, or within 8 weeks following, £15 6s. 8d., and the said William, his heirs, and assigns should well and sufficiently keep in repair the said manor house of Wytton, lands and mills, etc., at his own cost within the said term, etc., and in the case that the said William, his heirs, etc., should well and faithfully pay the said annual ferm of £30 13s. 4d., and fulfil all the other covenants, then the said Robert and Elizabeth conceded that the bond of £40 should be held as void. By virtue of which demise the said William was seised in demesne as of his freehold of the manor and other premises up to the 20th May, 10 E. IV, on which day the said Robert and Elizabeth had entered and ejected him. After some further pleadings which were simply matters of account, the defendants replied that William had recently re-entered the manor and other premises and had ejected them, and whilst so seised, by another indented deed made between the parties at London, in the parish of St. Peter of Chepe, in the ward of Crepulgate, dated the 8th November, 11 E. IV, the said William had acknowledged that by an account made between them in the Tavern of le Egle, in Chepe, it appeared that the said William then owed the said Robert and Elizabeth for the arrears of the said rents up to the Feast of St. John the Baptist last past, £38 13s. 4d. William denied that this indenture was his act and deed, and appealed to a jury on this issue. Sheriff was therefore ordered to summon a jury for the Octaves of Holy Trinity, and the deed was to remain in the interim in the hands of John Fugge, knight, the Chief Clerk in Banco. A postscript states that on the day named William Brereton made default, and the suit was respited till the Quindene of St. Michael, unless Thomas Bryan, the Chief Justice of the Bench, should first come to the Church of St. Martin Magnus, of London. Another postscript states that on that day a jury found in favor of Robert and Elizabeth, stating that the Indenture was the act and deed of William, and they assessed the damages of the plaintiffs at 100s. and their costs at £7. m. 122.

Salop. John Audeley, knight, sued John Chetewynde, of Chetewynde, armiger, and William Chetwynde, late of Michelaston, armiger, for an illegal entry by force into a messuage, 2 carucates of land, 20 acres of meadow, 100 acres of pasture, 10 acres of wood, and 10 marks of rent in Michelaston. The defendants did not appear, and the Sheriff was ordered to distrain and produce them on the Octaves of Holy Trinity. A postscript states that on that date the Sheriff made no return to the writ, and he was ordered to distrain and produce them on the Octaves of St. Michael. m. 218.

John did not appear and had previously made default, and the dower claimed had been taken into the King's hand. It was therefore considered that the said Margaret should recover the dower claimed. Staff. It had been presented by a jury of twelve in the week of Pentecost, 13 E. IV, at Stafford, before Ralph Wolseley and his fellow Justices of the Peace, that John Yonge, of Chavernes (Charnes), co. Stafford, gentilman, on the Saturday after the Feast of the Ascension, 13 E. IV, had killed at Chavernes Thomas Webbunbury with a lance whilst defending himself, and which Indictment the King for certain reasons wished to be heard and terminated in this Court. The Sheriff was therefore ordered to arrest the said John and produce him in Court at this term, and John Yonge now surrendered and pleaded that the Indictment was not sufficient in law, because there was no statement on it that he had feloniously killed the said Thomas, and the Indictment having been examined in Court, it was considered that it was not sufficient in law, and John was released. m. 6 Rex, dorso.

CORAM REGE. TRINITY, 14 E. IV.

Salop. It had been presented by a jury of twelve before Henry, Duke of Buckingham, and his fellow Justices of the Peace at Salop on Monday, the Feast of St. Petronilla, 13 E. IV, that Humfrey Cotes, the elder, late of Wodecote, co. Salop, gentilman, having collected together a number of malefactors and disturbers of the peace to the number of twenty persons armed with lances, gleyves, swords, and bows and arrows on the 22nd January, 12 E. IV. And the said Humfrey, having found security to keep the peace towards the King and all his people, was discharged from custody. m. 6 Rex.1

Staff. In the suit of John Somerford against John Tyler for a messuage, 10 acres of land, 3 acres of meadow, and 8 acres of pasture in Somerford, ¹ Margaret was probably a well endowed widow, whom Humfrey wished to marry, and her marriage belonged to the superior lord of the fee. In these cases it was common to carry off the widow by a show of force, as a marriage under such circumstances saved the widow's jointure from seizure by the feudal lord.

John had made default at the Easter sitting of the Court and the tenements had been taken into the King's hands. John Tyler again made default at this term, and John Somerford recovered the tenements. m. 121.

Elena Warde, of Stafford, widow, and John Haryngton, late of Hoyton, co. Lancaster, gentilman, were attached at the suit of Margaret Harecourt, widow, for the abduction of John Warde, son and heir of Hugh Warde, who was under age, and whose marriage belonged to her, and Margaret stated by her attorney that the said Hugh, the father of the heir, held of her a messuage, 60 acres of land, and 20 acres of meadow in Great Brycheford as of her manor of Elnhale, in co. Stafford, by homage and fealty and a scutage of 10s. when the King's scutage of 40s. was levied, and by suit of Court every three weeks, and by the service of finding nine men to reap her corn in autumn and six men for the repair of her park palings ("palacii parci"), and for finding two ploughs for one day for the winter sowing and two other ploughs for the Easter sowing, and she was so seised of the said homage, fealty, and scutage of the said rent and services as of fee and right by the hands of the said Hugh, and the said Hugh died in her homage, the said John Warde being under age, and she was in full and peaceable seisin of the heir, viz., from the Feast of the Annunciation, 12 E. IV, for a month, when the said Elena and John Haryngton on the 20th May, 12 E. IV, had taken the heir by force from Stafford, and for which she claimed £40 as damages.

The defendants appeared by attorney and denied that the said Hugh held his land of Margaret by the services named, and they stated that the said Hugh had married Elena, the defendant, and they had issue the said John Warde, and Hugh had died leaving John under age, and at the date of the alleged abduction John was the heir apparent of Elena, and Elena in her own right, and the said John Haryngton, acting as her servant, had taken the said John Warde, as was lawful, and they denied that the said Hugh had died in the homage of Margaret.

Margaret repeated her plea, and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of St. Hillary. A postscript shews that no jury had been empanelled up to Easter, 14 E. IV. m. 352.

Staff. John Colsulle, late of Benany, co. Devon, knight, and Elizabeth, his wife, John Wylby (Willoughby), late of Broke, co. Wiltes, and Anne, his wife, and Thomas Strangways, late of Lopton, co. Wilts, armiger, were attached at the suit of the King as well as of Humfrey Stafford, for a forcible entry into Humfrey Stafford's manors of Penkeryche, Perton, Littewode, Hyde-Coppendale, Bromeself, Almecote, and Litelhay, against the Statute of 5 R. II.

The defendants appeared by attorney and stated that as regarded the manors of Perton and Littewode, long before the alleged entry one William Smyth, clerk, and John Boeff were seised of them in demesne as of fee, and by their deed granted them to one Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, knight, and Elizabeth, his wife, for the term of their lives, with remainder to John Stafford, son of the said Humfrey and Elizabeth, and the heirs of his body, and failing such to one William Stafford and the heirs of his body, and failing such to Thomas Stafford, and failing such to one Humfrey Stafford, knight, son of the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, and Elizabeth, and the heirs of his body, and failing such to Richard Stafford and the heirs of his body, and failing such to the right heirs of the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, for ever. By virtue of which grant the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, and Elizabeth, his wife, were seised of the manors in demesne as of their freehold, and the said John had issue one Humfrey and died, and Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, and Elizabeth, his wife, died, and after their decease the said manors remained to the said Humfrey, son of John, who entered and was seised of them as of fee tail. And the said William Stafford had issue one Humfrey Stafford, late Earl of Devon, and died, and Humfrey, son of John, died seised of the manors of Perton and Littewode and left no issue, and after his death the manors remained to the said Humfrey, late Earl of Devon, as son and heir (of William), and the said Humfrey, late Earl, entered and was seised of them in demesne as of fee, and afterwards the said Thomas Stafford, Humfrey Stafford, the son of the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, and Elizabeth, and Richard Stafford died leaving no issue, and

and the said Earl died seised of the said manors of Perton and Littewode and left no issue before the date of the alleged entry, and after his death the said manors remained to the said Elizabeth and Anne and to one Alianora, now the wife of the said Thomas Strangways, as kinswomen and heirs of the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, viz., as daughters of Alice, the daughter of the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke. In consequence of which the said John Colsulle and Elizabeth, his wife, John Wylby, and Anne and Thomas Strangways had entered the said manors of Perton and Littewode, and were seised of them in right of the said Elizabeth, Anne, and Alianora. And the plaintiff Humfrey Stafford claiming them under color of a feoffment made to Humfrey Stafford and his heirs for ever by the said William Smyth and John Boeff long before the grant made by the same William and John to the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, and Elizabeth, his wife, although no part of the said manors had passed into the possession of the said Humfrey by that deed, had entered into the manors and removed the defendants, and they had re-entered into them as was lawful.

And as regarded the manors of Bromeself and Almecote, the defendants stated that one William Stafford, the elder, was seised of the manors in demesne as of fee long before the alleged entry, and had given them to one John Stafford and to Margaret, his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, and John and Margaret had issue one Humfrey Stafford, and after their decease the manors descended to Humfrey as their son and heir, and Humfrey entered and had issue the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, and after the death of Humfrey, Humfrey son of Humfrey entered as son and heir, and had issue Richard, John, William, and Alice. And Richard had issue Amice, late Countess of Wiltes, and died, and John had issue Humfrey and died, and Humfrey Stafford, the father of the said Richard, John, William, and Alice, died seised of the manors, and after his death they descended to the said Amice as his kinswoman and heir, viz., as daughter of Richard, his son, and Amice entered and died seised of them, leaving no issue, and after her death they descended to the said Humfrey, son of John, as her cousin and heir, viz., as son of John, brother of Richard, her father, and Humfrey entered and died seised of them, leaving no issue, and after his death they descended to Humfrey Stafford, late Earl of Devon, as his cousin and heir, viz., as son of William, brother of John, father of the said Humfrey, son of John, and the said Earl entered and died leaving no issue, and after his death they descended to the said Elizabeth Colsulle, Anne, and Alianora, the wife of Thomas Strangways, as his cousins and heirs, viz., as daughters of Alice, the sister of William, the father of the said Earl, and they had entered as his cousins and heirs, and the said Humfrey Stafford, the plaintiff, claiming the manors under color of a feoffment made to the said Humfrey and his heirs by William Stafford, the elder, before the grant made to the said John Stafford and Margaret, his wife, when no possession had ever passed to the said Humfrey by the conveyance, had entered and removed them, and they had re-entered as was lawful.

And as regarded the moiety of the manor of Penkeriche, the defendants stated that a Fine had been levied in 3 H. V and recorded at Hillary term, 4 H. V, between Humfrey Stafford, knight, and Elizabeth, his wife, complainants, and Robert Langford, deforciant of the said moiety and other lands which Amice Bardulf held for her life, by which, after her death, the said moiety had been settled on Humfrey and Elizabeth, and the heirs of the body of Humfrey, and failing such issue, to revert to the said Robert and his heirs for ever. And Amice died, and Humfrey and Elizabeth had entered, and Humfrey had issue Richard, John, and William ¹ He was beheaded at Bridgewater 17th August, 1469, under some mysterious circumstances which have never been explained.

Alice, and Richard had issue Amice, late Countess of Wiltes, and died (here follows the same account of the descent of the moiety of the manor as before to Humfrey, Earl of Devon, and from him to the defendants), and they had entered, and the plaintiff, claiming the moiety under color of a grant made to him and to his heirs by the said Robert of the reversion of the moiety after the death of Amice Bardolf before the Fine had been levied, had entered, and removed the defendants, and they had re-entered as was lawful.

And as regarded the residue of the said manors the defendants stated that long before the alleged entry one Humfrey Stafford, knight, late Earl of Devon, was seised of them in demesne as of fee, and after his death they descended to the defendants as his cousins and heirs, viz., as daughters of Alice, the sister of William, the father of the said Earl, and they had entered. And the said Humfrey Stafford, the plaintiff, claiming the said residue under color of a demise made to him for his life by the said Earl, had removed the defendants, and they had re-entered as was lawful.

Humfrey, the plaintiff, replied that as regarded the manors of Perton and Littewode, the said Humfrey Stafford, of Hoke, was seised of them in demesne as of fee after the death of Elizabeth, his wife, and whilst so seised had enfeoffed a certain William Smyth and John Cheyne in them, and the said William and John had granted them to one Humfrey Stafford with the silver hand ("cum manu argenteo"), to be held by him and the heirs male of his body, and failing such to remain to one Humfrey Stafford, the son of Ralph Stafford, then lord of Grafton, and the heirs male of his body, and failing such to remain to the right heirs of the said Humfrey Stafford with the silver hand. By virtue of which grant the said Humfrey with the silver hand was seised of the manors and died seised of them, leaving no male issue, and after his death they descended to the plaintiff as his kinsman and heir, viz., as son of Humfrey, son of the said Humfrey, son of Ralph Stafford, and he had entered and was seised of them as of fee tail until the defendants had entered the manors against the Statute, and he prayed for judgement in his favor, and that he might be awarded damages for the illegal entry.

And as regarded the residue of the manors the plaintiff stated that the said William Smyth and John Cheyne were seised of them at the time the Fine was levied, and both before and after and whilst so seised they had conveyed them to the said Humfrey Stafford with the silver hand, and to the heirs male of his body, and failing such to remain to the said Humfrey Stafford, son of Ralph Stafford, and the heirs male of his body, and failing such to the right heirs of Humfrey Stafford with the silver hand, and the said Humfrey with the silver hand died so seised of them, leaving no male issue, and he had entered as his cousin and heir, viz., as son of Humfrey, son of the said Humfrey, son of Ralph Stafford, and he had entered and was seised of them until removed by the defendants, and he denied that William Stafford, the elder, had given the manors of Bromeself and Almecote to John Stafford and Margaret, his wife, and the heirs of their bodies as alleged by the defendants, nor that Robert Langford or the said Humfrey Stafford and Elizabeth, who were parties to the Fine, ever held anything in the moiety of the manor of Penkeriche at the time the Fine was levied, or that Humfrey Stafford, late Earl of Devon, had died seised in his demesne as of fee of the residue of the manors as alleged by the defendants.

The defendants repeated their plea and denied that William Smyth and John Cheyne had been seised of the manors of Perton and Littewode and had given them to Humfrey Stafford with the silver hand and the heirs male of his body, as alleged by the plaintiff, and they appealed to a jury on each count. The Sheriff was therefore ordered to summon a jury for the Octaves of St. Hillary. A postscript states that on that day the Sheriff made no return to the writ, and he was ordered to summon a jury for the Quindene of Easter Day. Other postscripts shew no jury had been summoned up to Trinity term, 17 E. IV. 1 m. 418.

Staff. Thomas Jenkyns, of Bymyngeham, co. Warwick, yoman, was attached at the suit of William Frebody for breaking by force, with two others named, into his close at Barre on the 12th July, 12 E. IV, and so threatening his tenants, Thomas Burgelon and William Smyth, that for fear of their lives they had given up their tenancies, viz., the first, 12 acres of pasture, for which Thomas paid 8s. annually, and the second, 6 acres of pasture and 4 acres of meadow, for which William paid 8s. annually, and for which be claimed $40 as damages.

which he claimed £40 as damages.

Thomas appeared by attorney and denied having used any force, and appealed on that issue to a jury, and as regarded the rest of the trespass alleged against him, he stated that at the time the entry was made there was a messuage and a garden of which one William Brette was formerly seised in demesne as of fee, and William had given it to John More and Christine, his wife, the daughter of the said William Brette, to be held by them and the heirs of their bodies, and John had died, and Christine had survived him, and whilst so seised in fee tail had married the defendant Thomas Jenkyns, and the plaintiff claimed the messuage and garden under color of a deed of demise made to him by William Brette for his life long before the gift of the tenements to John More and Christine, although he had never been in possession of them by the above demise, and had removed the said Thomas and Christine, and they had re-entered, as was

Humfrey Stafford, of Hook, had purchased Perton from John de Barnhurst, the nephew and heir of the last Sir John de Perton, temp. R. II. The three co-heiresses eventually established their claim to the manors, and on the partition of the estate amongst them, Perton fell to the share of Anne, the wife of Sir John Willoughby, of Broke. (Deeds formerly at Wrottesley.)

It will be noted that the Erdeswicks were not the representatives of the Staffords of Sandon and Bramshall, as claimed by Sampson Erdeswick the antiquary and historian.

Amice, the Countess of Wilts., is styled indifferently Avice and Amice in the pleadings.

And as regards the alleged threats to the tenants of William Frebody, he denied that Thomas Burgelon and William Smyth at the time the alleged trespass took place were tenants at will of William Frebody.

The plaintiff replied that it was true that William Brette had been seised of the messuage and garden in demesne as of fee, but he stated that whilst so seised he had enfeoffed Ralph Cromwell, knight, Lord Cronwell, Henry Knyveton, Robert Knyveton, Henry Fylongley, and Roger Odam of them, and they had been in seisin of the tenements until they had been disseised by William Brette before he made the grant to John More and Christine, and Ralph, Lord Cromwell, Henry Fylongley, and Roger had died and John Knyveton and Robert had survived them and had been seised of the tenement by the "jus accrescendi," and whilst so seised they had enfeoffed him. By virtue of which feoffment he had been seised up to the time when Thomas Jenkyns had broken into the close, and he also stated that Thomas Burgelon and William Smyth were his tenants at will, holding the tenements specified in his plea, and he appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of St. Hillary. m. 409.

Middlesex. James Lee, late of Aston, co. Stafford, was summoned by Richard Whalley, of Darlaston, co. Stafford, gentilman, in a plea that he should render to him 1,000 marks which he unjustly withheld, and Richard appeared in person, and stated that on the 7th May, 13 E. IV, the said James had entered into a bond with him at Westminster for the payment to him of 1,000 marks on the following Feast of St. Luke, and which he had hitherto refused to pay.

James appeared by attorney, and asked that the bond might be read, and the conditions of the bond were that if Thomas Fytton named in it would hold and obey the arbitrament and judgement of the Reverend Father in Christ, Laurence, the Bishop of Durham, and of Thomas Stanley, Lord Stanley, arbitrators chosen both by the said Thomas Fytton and Richard Whalley, respecting the title and right to certain lands and tenements and rents and services which had formerly belonged to Thomas Hauton, of Dar laston, in the vills of Darlaston and Annesley, in co. Stafford, and respecting all actions and demands and disputes between the said parties from the beginning of the world to the date of the bond, so that nevertheless the said ordinance and judgement of the arbitrators should be delivered before the said Feast of St. Luke, and that neither Thomas Fytton nor any other in his name should receive the rents or services from the said vills of Darlaston and Annesley in the interim, that then the said bond should be held of no

James stated that the Bishop and Thomas Stanley had delivered no judgement before the said Feast of St. Luke, and therefore Richard could not maintain his action against him.

Richard replied he was not precluded from his action on that account, and that long before the date of the bond a certain John Russendalle and Thomas Gilbert, clerks, were seised of a messuage and 60 acres of land and 7 acres of meadow in Annesley, part of the tenements specified in the conditions, and had granted them to a certain William Hawton and Elena, his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, and after their decease, the tenements had descended to him as kinsman and heir of their bodies, viz., as son of Elizabeth, the daughter of the said William and Elena, and he had entered and was seised in his demesne as of fee tail by the form of gift and whilst so seised and before the date of the bond, viz., on the 7th May, 12 E. IV, he had demised the said messuage and land and meadow to one Robert Boughay for a term of 12 years for a rent of 30s., and the said Robert being in possession, the said Thomas Fytton, on the date of the deed at Lychefeld, in co. Stafford, by his servant, John Sutton, had exacted from Robert a sum of 30s. for the rent and ferm of the above messuage and land and meadow which was in arrear, and he claimed judgement therefore in his favor.

James denied that Thomas Fytton had exacted the 30s. from Robert Boughay as stated by Richard, and appealed on this issue to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of St. Hillary. A postscript states that on that date the Sheriff made no return to the writ, and he was ordered to summon a jury for the Quindene of Easter Day. m. 454.

Middlesex. Hugh Eggerton, of Wrynehulle, co. Stafford, armiger, was summoned at the suit of Richard Whalley, of Darlaston, co. Stafford, gentilman, for a debt of 1,000 marks, for which the said Richard held his bond dated from Westminster, 7th September, 13 E. IV.

Hugh asked that the conditions of the bond might be read, and they were read as in the previous suit. The pleadings are the same as in the previous suit, Hugh denying that Thomas Fytton had taken 30s. from Robert Boughay, and he appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of St. Hillary. A postscript shews that on that date the Sheriff made no return to the writ, and he was ordered to summon a jury for the Quindene of Easter Day. A further postscript shews that the suit was eventually adjourned to a month from Michaelmas, in 15 E. IV, unless the Justices of Assize should first come to Stafford on the Thursday after the Feast of St. James, on which day Richard Whalley failed to appear, and the suit was dismissed. m. 156.

Staff. The Sheriff had been ordered to take into the King's hands a messuage, 10 acres of land, and 2 acres of meadow in Fosbroke, which William Basset, armiger, claimed against William Egerton by a writ of "quare cessavit per biennium," and to summon the said William Egerton for this term to shew cause why the tenement should not be adjudged to the plaintiff. William Egerton appeared in person and stated that he held the tenement of the plaintiff by fealty and a rent of 8d. annually for all services, and he offered in Court to pay the plaintiff 2s. 8d., the arrears of the said rent for the past three years, and to satisfy him for his costs and damages, and likewise to find security for the future payment of the rent as the Court should think fit.

And William Basset stated that the defendant held the tenement of him by fealty and a rent of 12d. annually, and he had been seised of that service by the hands of the defendant as his tenant until eight years ago, when William Egerton had ceased to pay the rent.

William Egerton replied that he only owed 8d. annually for the tenement and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Octaves of St. Hillary. m. 460.

Derb. Ralph Wolseley and Margaret, his wife, executrix of the will of John Kynnerdesley, armiger, executor of the will of Robert Kynnardesley, sued Richard Blakewalle, late of Wyrkesworth, yoman, administrator of the goods and chattels of John Blakkewalle, who, it was stated, had died intestate, for a debt of £40. Richard did not appear, and the Sheriff was ordered to arrest and produce him on the Octaves of St. Hillary. m. 515.

Staff. Robert Kynnardesey, son and heir of John Kynnardesey, armiger, sued William (. . .), of Southwynfeld, co. Derby, yoman, Margaret Rolleston, late of Lee, in the parish of Asshor, co. Derby, wedowe, and (. . .) Rolleston, late of Lee, in the parish of Asshor, gentilman, to give up to him a pyx containing writings and muniments which they unjustly detained. The defendants did not appear, and the Sheriff was ordered to arrest and produce them on the Octaves of St. Hillary. A postscript shews that the Sheriff had made no return to the writ up to Hillary term, 15 E. IV. m. 521.

Derb. Henry Vernon, armiger, sued John Pole, late of Hertyngton, co. Derby, the younger, armiger, for breaking into his closes at Bakewell and Yolgreve and taking 8 oxen and 216 sheep belonging to him worth 40s. John did not appear, and the Sheriff was ordered to distrain and produce him on the Quindene of St. Hillary. m. 582.

Staff. William Praers sued in person Richard Shelle, of Kyngesbromley, husbondman, and Emma, his wife, for breaking into his closes and houses in Kyngesbromley and depasturing cattle on his grass. The defendants did not appear, and the Sheriff was ordered to put them into exigend, and if they did not appear to outlaw the said Richard, and to "waive" the said Emma, and if they appeared to arrest and produce them at five weeks from Easter Day. m. 589.

William Praers was one of the prothonotaries of the Court.

CORAM REGE. MICH., 14 E. IV.

Wygorn. The Sheriff had been ordered to distrain John Dypper, the Bailiff of the Bishop's Hundred of Oswaldslowe, and to produce the bodies of William Stafford, bastard, late of Grafton, gentilman, and John Shaylle and Richard Raynold at this term, and they did not appear, and he returned he had distrained the said John to the amount of 6s 8d. He was therefore ordered to distrain again and produce them on the Morrow of the Purification. m. 2, dorso.

Derb. The Sheriff had been ordered to put into exigend John de la Pole, late of Hertyngton, the younger, armiger, Edmund de la Pole, gentilman, Robert de la Pole, gentilman, Humfrey de la Pole, gentilman, Philip de la Pole, gentilman, William Robynson, yoman, Nicholas Bateman, yoman (all described as late of Hertyngton), Philip Leche, late of Chattesworth, armiger, and four others named, and if they did not appear to outlaw them, and if they appeared to arrest and produce them at this term to answer to the King as accessories to the death of John Moycock, and they did not appear, and the Sheriff made no return to the writ. He was therefore ordered as before to put them into exigend, etc., and produce them at a month from Easter Day. m. 34 Rex.

Staff. A writ of error to annul the outlawries of Richard Tyddeswelle, of Matherfeld, yoman, John Smyth, of Calton, husbondman, and Thomas Smyth, of the same place, husbondman, who had been outlawed for a trespass committed vi et armis in the park of Philip Oker (Okeover), armiger. The outlawries were annulled on the ground that the Sheriffs had not named the place in some cases where the County Courts were held at which they had been exacted, and in some cases the interval between the Courts had been a month in place of three weeks, as was customary. m. 51 Rex.

Staff. It had been presented before Richard Byngham, knight, and his Fellow Justices of the Peace at Stafford on the Thursday after the Feast of St. James, 6 E. IV, that whereas John, the Bishop of Chester, and all his predecessors in right of their Cathedral Church of St. Cedde, of Lichefeld, from time out of memory had common of pasture for themselves and their tenants in the vills of Heywode, Ruggeley, Longedon, Cannok, Brocton, Byssheton, Walton, Bednall, Acton Trussell, Chorley, Shenstone, Huntynton, and Breredon in 1,000 acres of pasture within the demesne of Haywode, and John Stanley, knight, and all his ancestors, lords of Pipe, Hamewyche, and Edihall from all time had had common of pasture for themselves and their tenants in the same vills in 1,000 acres of pasture, and likewise John Gresley, knight, and all his ancestors, lords of Morton, Little Haywode, and Byssheton, from all time had had common of pasture for themselves and their tenants in the same 1,000 acres of pasture, and John Colwyche and all his ancestors, lords of Colwyche, from all time had had common of pasture for themselves and their tenants in the same 1,000 acres of pasture, Thomas Wolsley, of Wolsley, gentilman, and Ralph Wolsley, late of Wolsley, gentilman, on the 12th March, 5 E. IV, had by force enclosed and held in severalty the said 1,000 acres, so that the said Bishop, John Stanley, John Gresley, and John Colwyche and their tenants could no longer common in the said 1,000 acres, against the peace of the King, etc.

And the said Thomas and Ralph Wolsley now appeared by attorney, and

And the said Thomas and Ralph Wolsley now appeared by attorney, and denied that the plaintiffs and their tenants had ever had common of pasture in the said 1,000 acres, or that the 1,000 acres in question were part of the demesne of Heywode, and they denied that they had enclosed more than 300 acres out of the 1,000 acres in question, and as regarded the enclosure of 300 acres of the said pasture, Thomas stated that at the date of the presentment he was seised of the manor of Wolseley in demesne as of fee, and that the 1,000 acres of pasture now in question from time out of memory had been parcel of the manor, and had always been called Wolseley Wode, and that he and all his ancestors had been accustomed to enclose portions of the said 1,000 acres at their pleasure, and to hold them in severalty at all times of the year, and that amongst other parcels his ancestors and those who held the status of the said Thomas in the manor of Wolseley had enclosed divers parcels of the said woods and pasture, viz., one parcel called Glashoushay, another parcel called Milneconynger, and two other parcels called Le Riddynge, and had held them in severalty, and finally the said Thomas stated that he had enclosed the said 300 acres of pasture, part of the 1,000 acres in question, with palings, which were within his manor of Wolseley as was lawful, and Ralph Wolseley stated he had acted in the matter as servant only of the said Thomas and by his commands, and they appealed on these issues to a jury. The Sheriff was therefore ordered to summon a jury for the Octaves of St. Hillary. A postscript shews that the Sheriff had made no return to the writ up to Trinity term, 15 E. IV. m. 52 Rex.

Staff. The Sheriff was ordered to put into exigend Robert Massey, late of Walton, near Stone, the younger, gentilman, Robert Massey, the elder, late of Walton, gentilman, Petronilla Massey, wife of Robert Massey, the elder, gentilwoman, Thomas Fresby, late of Walton, yoman, Robert Froddesham, late of Walton, taillour, John Man, late of Walton, knave, Henry Chesshire, late of Walton, sowter, and Ralph Massey, late of Crossley, co. Chester, gentilman, and if they did not appear to outlaw them, and if they appeared to arrest and produce them at this date, to answer to the King for divers felonies and murders of which they had been indicted, and they did not appear, and the Sheriff made no return to the writ. He was therefore ordered as before to put them into exigend and produce them at a month from Easter Day. m. 39, dorso Rex.

MUSTER ROLL, STAFFORDSHIRE, A.D. 1539.

MUSTER ROLL, STAFFORDSHIRE. A.D. 1539.

In 1538, the Emperor Charles V and Francis, the King of France, had made up their differences, and had agreed to a ten years' truce.

In the same year, the Pope, Paul IV, had published a Bull excommunicating Henry VIII and deposing him for his heretical opinions, and was endeavouring to induce the two sovereigns above named to put it into execution.

The King and his Privy Council were seriously alarmed and ordered a muster to be made of the entire armed force of the kingdom. The levies were never called up, the King, by his diplomacy, having managed to disconcert the project of the Pope.

Letters Patent appointing Commissioners of Array for each County were issued on the 1st March, 30 H. VIII (1539). Those for Staffordshire were as follow¹:—

TRANSLATION.

Henry the Eighth, by the grace of God King of England and France, Defender of the Faith, and Lord of Ireland, and in earth of the English Church supreme head, to his beloved and faithful Walter, Lord Ferrers, Henry Stafford, Lord Stafford, John Gyfforde, knight, William Bassett, knight, Philip Draycotte, knight, John Harecourt, knight, Edward Astone, knight, George Greisley, knight, George Gryffith, knight, John Varnon, Walter Wrottesley, Edward Lytleton, Thomas Gyfford, William Wyrley the younger, Thomas Holte, James (name illegible), Humfrey Welles, Thomas Skrympshire, John Grosvenour, Thomas Moreton, Richard Selman, and Walter Blounte, and the Sheriff of the County of Stafford, greeting. Know ye that we, fully trusting in your fidelity and prudent circumspection, with the advice of our Council have assigned you and two of you our Commissioners and deputies, giving and granting to you by these presents full power and authority jointly and severally, all and singular men at arms and armed men capable for arms, as well archers as other men, horse and foot, above the age of sixteen years, resident in the several places within the County of Stafford aforesaid, as well within liberties as without, to array, inspect, and test, and to cause to be armed and furnished, and also to have arms and munitions according to their abilities, and according to the form and effect of the Statutes and Ordinances before these times thereof published and provided, and diligently to make and oversee the due mustering or inspection of the same our subjects and their arms and munitions. So that the said men at arms and armed men, archers, and other defensible men aforesaid, so armed, arrayed, inspected, and furnished, henceforth from time to time may be ready and prepared to serve us as often as, and when it shall be needful and requisite. Moreover, we have assigned you and two of you by turns to inspect, test, and array all and every of you in like manner, yourselves to be furnished and in arms and horses to cause to be provided and ordered in form aforesaid. So that all and every of you, in form aforesaid inspected, arrayed, and prepared, may be ready and continually prepared to serve us in like manner as is aforesaid. And therefore we command you, that respecting the premises at certain days and places which for this purpose according to your sound discretion you shall see fit, you do diligently attend to and perform and execute them in form aforesaid. We give also to all and singular our officers, ministers, and subjects whomsoever, as well within liberties as without, by the tenor of these presents firmly in command that to you in execution of the premises they be attentive, assisting and diligently obedient in all things. And what you shall have done in the premises, together with the names and sunames and number as well of horse, foot, and archers, and all arms and munitions and other things by you in form aforesaid inspected and armed in the several places within the county aforesaid in which they dwell, and of the diversity of arms with which every one of them is armed do you duly certify us and our Council at one month from Easter Day next, under your seals or the seals of two of you. In witness whereof these our letters we have caused to be made patent. Witness ourself at Westminster the first day of March in the thirtieth year of our reign.

The following meanings of the terms used in the Muster Roll are taken principally from Halliwell's Dictionary of Archaic and Provincial Words:—

A Gesturne, Gestrone, or Gessaraunte is a jacket without sleeves, on which were fastened small oblong plates of steel overlapping one another.

A Jack is a doublet, or defensive garment, padded, and quilted with strips of leather.

Splents or splints was armour for the arms, where they were left unprotected by the Gesturne or Jack.

A Salet (French, Salade) was a light steel cap with a projection behind extending over the nape of the neck.

Harness was any kind of armour, and was not used in the modern contracted sense of the word as referring only to the horse. It probably comprised all kinds of defensible armour, including the Jack, which contained no iron or steel; it also included defensible armour for the horse.

"Almain rivets" were rivets with elongated holes which admitted of the plates moving one upon the other. Halliwell quotes from "Testamenta Vetusta":—"My coat of black velvet furred with martens, with six pair of Almain rivets complete with splints, sallets, etc."

A bill was a pike with a long handle and a spear head with a bill-hook, which was used to drag a man off a horse. In this reign the pike was often 18 feet in length.
